Thomas Vinterberg's ANOTHER ROUND, features Mads Mikkelsen as a high school teacher who with his three friends embark on an experiment to test the "half a per mille" theory that the human body performs best under the influence of 0.05 blood alcohol content.

A fun, touching and thought-provoking drama about friendship, freedom – and alcohol.

"Audaciously provocative and wickedly funny."
- Dominik Corry - Chicago Sun-Times

"Another Round is a truly wonderful movie about trying to come to grips with life, anchored by terrific performances, infectious music, and a real understanding of the humming discontentment that all adults must learn to navigate in their own ways."
- Alissa Wilkinson - VOX

(M) - SPAIN - Dir. Cesc Gay - 82mins
Sunday 25 April 4:30pm BCC Cinemas Earlville

Julio and Ana have been together for over fifteen years. This evening, Ana has invited the upstairs neighbours over. Salva and Laura are the slightly younger and sometimes noisy couple.

This evening, the neighbors will become both the instigators and victims of an emotional tsunami, brought on by an unusual and surprising proposal. The four adults can't help but get caught up in an evening of excess and catharsis.

"This witty and caustic film may be confined in terms of setting and scope (it unfolds in real time) but it's fun nonetheless, not least because of the delicious performances from the four actors."
- David Stratton - The Australian

Deep in the forests of Piedmont, Italy, a handful of men, seventy or eighty years young, hunt for the rare and expensive white Alba truffle—which to date has resisted all of modern science's efforts at cultivation.

The demand for white truffles increases year after year, even as the supply decreases. As a result of climate change, deforestation, and the lack of young people taking up the mantle, the truffle hunters' secrets are more coveted than ever. However, as it soon becomes clear, these ageing men may just hold something much more valuable than even this prized delicacy: the secret to a rich and meaningful life.
